The program commenced with Saraswati Pujan and Saraswati Vandana, creating a serene and auspicious atmosphere. The program anchor warmly welcomed all the present principals, dignitaries, faculty members, and students, followed by their felicitation.

On the same occasion, an Author Talk was organized for students and staff, making the event both informative and inspiring. The program featured the chief guest and author, Dr. Manisha Dughav, who introduced her five books—Ashtanghridaya (Sutrasthana), Handbook of Padartha Vijnana, Festivals in Maharashtra and Ayurveda, Illustration of Viruddha Ahara Consumption and Congenital Anomalies, and Viruddha Ahara and Santana Dosha—along with her other publications. She also shared valuable insights into the Copyright Act, highlighting its importance for authors, researchers, and students. Her address inspired students to develop reading habits and encouraged them to explore writing as a creative and intellectual pursuit.

Further enriching the program, Dr. Sreeraj S. R. delivered an informative presentation on the importance of the Copyright day with PPT, he clearly explained the legal aspects and the significance of copyright protection in academic and professional work.

Adding to the significance of the event, Prof. Rajeshwari Khairnar delivered an insightful speech on World Book Day, emphasizing the importance of books in personal and intellectual growth. Her talk highlighted how reading contributes to knowledge enhancement and lifelong learning.

The program also featured a wonderful speech by Nursing College student Ms. Nirmiti Bhabal, who shared her thoughts on the value of books and reading in shaping one's future. Her speech was highly appreciated by all attendees.

The event witnessed active participation from staff and students of various colleges, including the Ayurved College, Pharmacy College, Nursing College, and Physiotherapy College, making it a vibrant and interdisciplinary gathering.
